Tapescript

Interviewer: Who is your best friend,
Holly?

Holly: Pete.

Interviewer: Why is he a good friend?

Holly: Because he likes to do the same things as I do. He's popular, too, and he's good at sports.

Interviewer: Are you good at sports, too?

Holly: Well, I like sports, but Pete's more athletic than me. I'd say we're both pretty outgoing, though.

Interviewer: what else do you like about Pete?

Holly: He's funnier than I am, and he's wilder. I'm a little quieter.

Interviewer: How about you, Maria?

Who's your best friend?

Maria: My best friend is Vera.

Interviewer: What do you like about her?

Maria: Well, she's a good listener, and she keeps secrets-that's important to me.

Interviewer: Is she a lot like you?

Maria: Some people say that we look alike. We're both tall, and we both have long, curly hair. But Vera is much quieter than me, and she's also smarter. I'm more outgoing.

2c. Pairwork

A: Holly's best friend is funnier than she is.

B: Well, Maria and her best friend are both tall.

3a. Read the article. Underline the words that describe what people are like.
