learn about one day except have been to have gone to

I love learning Geography. In geography class, we can learn about people and different cultures in different parts of the world. This week, my geography teacher is organizing us to get ready for our project--- spring outing. It's a good chance to step close to the nature. We have been to many beautiful scenic spots except the seaside. Because it's a little far from here. My aunt have gone to Hawaii this week. I hope one day I could go there too. It's my dream.
