九、阅读理解。(40分)

A(西安高新一中模拟卷)

Dear Alan,

I'm glad to receive your letter. I think friends are also very important.

When I started junior high school, I moved to another city with my family away from my old friends. At that time, I was too shy to have any new friends. So I was very lonely for a few months. But finally, I made some friends with my new classmates. David was a special person. He wanted to protect the earth. He told people around him the importance of protecting (保护) the environment all the time. I think Betty was the cleverest student. She was really friendly and she helped everyone in our class. I learned a lot from her. We did a lot of interesting things together and we often went hiking. Those are some of the happiest memories. In our lives, friends are very important. So, why don't you talk to anyone else in the class? I believe that you will have some new friends very soon. Don't worry too much.

Yours,

Nancy
